

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN
GREEN BAY DIVISION

ANDREW L. COLBORN,

Plaintiff,

vs.

Civil No.: 19-CV-484-PP

NETFLIX, INC.; CHROME MEDIA LLC,
F/K/A SYNTHESIS FILMS, LLC;
LAURA RICCIARDI; AND MOIRA
DEMOS,

Defendants.

DECLARATION OF DOMINIQUE BIANCHI

I, Dominique Bianchi, swear as follows:

1. I am over 18 years old and have personal knowledge regarding the facts set forth in this Declaration. If called to testify, I could and would testify competently regarding the facts recited herein.

2. I am employed by R.C. Baral & Company Inc., which also employs Tal Benari.

3. My job duties include filling in as a receptionist when the firm's primary receptionist is at lunch or taking a break. While I am working as the receptionist, I am seated behind a counter in a waiting area that is open to the public. Two doors leading from the waiting area to the interior offices are kept closed.

4. My duties as receptionist include answering telephone calls; greeting visitors; and notifying others who work in the office suite that visitors have arrived. When I am working as the receptionist, while I am authorized to accept routine deliveries on behalf of the company, I am not authorized to accept service of process, either on behalf of the company or on behalf of anyone who works there. I am not the person in charge of the office.

5. I worked as the fill-in receptionist during the lunch hour on March 29, 2019. During that time, a man entered the waiting area and asked to see Mr. Benari. Because Mr. Benari was not in his office, I told the visitor that I could not call Mr. Benari out to the waiting area to meet the visitor because Mr. Benari was not in. The visitor then attempted to leave a number of documents with me to give to Mr. Benari. I told him that I could not accept or sign for any documents. The man put the documents on the counter in the reception area and left. When I looked at the documents, they appeared to include a summons for the lawsuit by Andrew Colborn against Chrome Media and others.

6. I do not recall the visitor mentioning his name. He did not leave a business card.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on this 26th day of April 2019.
